*Ben Davis
High School*

Indianapolis, Indiana Volume 36

*In 1970 we stood on the brink of a new decade—looking back on assassinations, an unpopular war in Viet Nam, racial unrest, a society shocked by hippies, and a land devastated by waste.
We rejected it all.
The future was ours to reshape. Taking our philosophy from rock ballads, we dreamed and worked for a better tomorrow.*

St. Mary's

Though we found ourselves in troubled times, facing a future of challenges, Ben Davis experienced few of the problems confronting most modern schools. What was called the "Student Protest Movement" across the nation did not exist here. We staged no rebellions, we wrote no underground papers, we had little experience with drugs. Why were we different? There are several reasons. It was not that we were apathetic or behind the times. We cared. We cared deeply about the really important issues—like freedom and justice and peace and independence. We too wanted to build a better world, but we avoided the superficial hang-ups that cause disruptions. First, we come, for the most part, from middle-class families with strong ties and established values. Added to this is the progressive nature of Ben Davis High School. Though our history goes back over 100 years, we are not tied to tradition. Our building, our curriculum, and our teachers are as progressive and as modern as tomorrow. They respond to our needs, and when we run into problems, we work out solutions together. We are loyal to Ben Davis. We're proud of our reputation as an outstanding school that pioneers in new developments. It is with sincerity that we stand proud to sing from our school song, "Here's to old Ben Davis High. Love her? Yes, we do!"

In our search for knowledge, we sometimes distilled the essence of an idea, a theory, a philosophy.

With moist clay, pungent cedar, soft wool, and tinkling notes, we shaped creations to express our dreams.

Quiet moments were rare, but sometimes between the rush and the chaos, we found time to rest, to meditate.

*We would wait for our signal to hurry.
Then a bell would punctuate the calm.
Our lives were fast-paced, breathless.*

*Our slang and our fads were fleeting.
We went "mod,"
"mini," "maxi," psychedelic.
Fashions were our "bag," our
"hang-up."*

*When our time was our own, we lived intensely, fully.
We shared our personal feelings,
our deepest emotions.*

In 1970 we became aware of the inequities in the world. It was an age of concern, of involvement.

Some of us stood out from the crowd, earning or winning distinction.

Are BD's Prestige Groups

Charlie Harris, Student Council president, conducts a full meeting in the lecture room. This year the Council sponsored the Homecoming festivities including the bonfire, the parade, and the queen contest. The All-School Party, "Buggies to Blast-Off" was also a Council project. Every seventh-period class has a representative.

The executive committee which meets regularly during seventh-period plans the spring election (L. to R.) Tom Poland, Charlie Harris, Rita

Mask and Gavel is made up of several groups—National Forensics League, sponsored by Mr. Max McQueen, Debate, sponsored by Mr. Larry Highbaugh, and Drama Club and Thespians, sponsored by Mr. Bob Hughes.

FRENCH CLUB, sponsored by Mrs. Ina Hyde and Mrs. Barbara Gruszynski, had many projects and activities during the year. The officers, Denise Weaks, president; Chris Pelkin, vice-president; Becky Bengé, secretary; and Leatrice Porter, treasurer, encouraged many projects.

GERMAN CLUB, whose sponsor is Mrs. Carol Schmitz, encouraged interest in German culture. Officers are Lynn Vogel, president; Tim Freund, vice-president; Debbie O'Neal, secretary; and Tony Freund, secretary.

LATIN CLUB members, who are primarily sophomores, were sponsored by Mr. Joseph Cook. Officers are First Consul, Doug Case; Second Consul, Kathy Pearson; Quaestor, Jan Barcus; Scriba, Cindy Masterson.

Language Clubs Promote World Understanding

LATIN CLUB members conducted a slave sale at the annual Mardi Gras festival. Left: Terri Allen, Yvonne Fritche, Jodi McClain, and Brenda Ray wait to be sold.

SPANISH CLUB, sponsored by Mrs. Julia Riquelme and Miss Sue Burke, has over 80 members. The officers are Margaret Heckler, president; Alicia Hernandez, vice-president; and Judy Freeman, treasurer. The group has been very active this year.

THE GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION, sponsored by Mrs. Priscilla Conway and Miss Linda Hawk, participated in many activities throughout the year such as gymnastics, volleyball, basketball, and tennis. They also took skiing and camping trips. The GAA girls at Ben Davis have one of the most active clubs in the state.

New Club Schedule Increases

THE AMERICANISM CLUB, whose primary goal was to stimulate and promote pride in American ideals, grew so large with the new schedule, its meetings became programs, rather than activities.

Dave Richards acts out a scene from American history.

THE JUNIOR-SENIOR HISTORY CLUB, under the direction of Miss Carolyn Lineks and Mr. James Hartsock, also gained members with the new schedule. The club's main purpose was also to promote interest in American heritage, and the group took a number of field trips in this connection.

Size of Extra-curricular Groups

THE AMERICANISM CLUB was so large, two pictures were necessary.

THE SOPHOMORE HISTORY CLUB, sponsored by Mr. Ted Stafford and Mrs. Jane Wilson, had as its officers: Kelvin O'Day, president; Fraun Percifield, vice-president; and Vicky Stevenson, secretary.

This group also took field trips, listened to speakers, and carried out projects designed to promote interest in American history.

Students Pursue

Debbie O'Neal, Cathy Moss, and Richard Miles keep score at a weekly bowling session. Ben Davis has the largest high school Bowling Club in Indiana.

Becky Featherston, senior, concentrates on her style, as her fellow bowlers look on with interest.

The BOWLING CLUB has over 140 members. Team captains are (SEATED) Debbie O'Neal, Linda Corwin, Dave Adams, and sponsor Mr. Mimis Antonopoulos. (STANDING) Dianna Brittenback, Suzi Thompson, Kay Conway, Monty McCoskey, Kathe Turner, Frankie Kernodle, Steve Davis, Martha McDaniel.

Many Interests Through Clubs

The FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES is an organization new to Ben Davis this year. Mr. Allan Severn is the sponsor. The purpose of the group is "to confront athletes and coaches with the challenge and adventure of following Christ and serving Him through the fellowship of church and in their vocations." There are over 60 boys in the club.

The four outstanding players in this year's recently revived CHESS CLUB, under the sponsorship of Mr. Ireland, are Ralph Featherston, Andy Jackson, Dave Mason, and Jerry Godfried.

Students Explore Careers

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA was such a large organization two pictures were necessary. Under the sponsorship of Mr. John Schwegman, the group participated in a number of activities, including Teachers'

Appreciation Day, Mardi Gras, a style show, and hosting the state convention. President of the group was Cathy Trittipio.

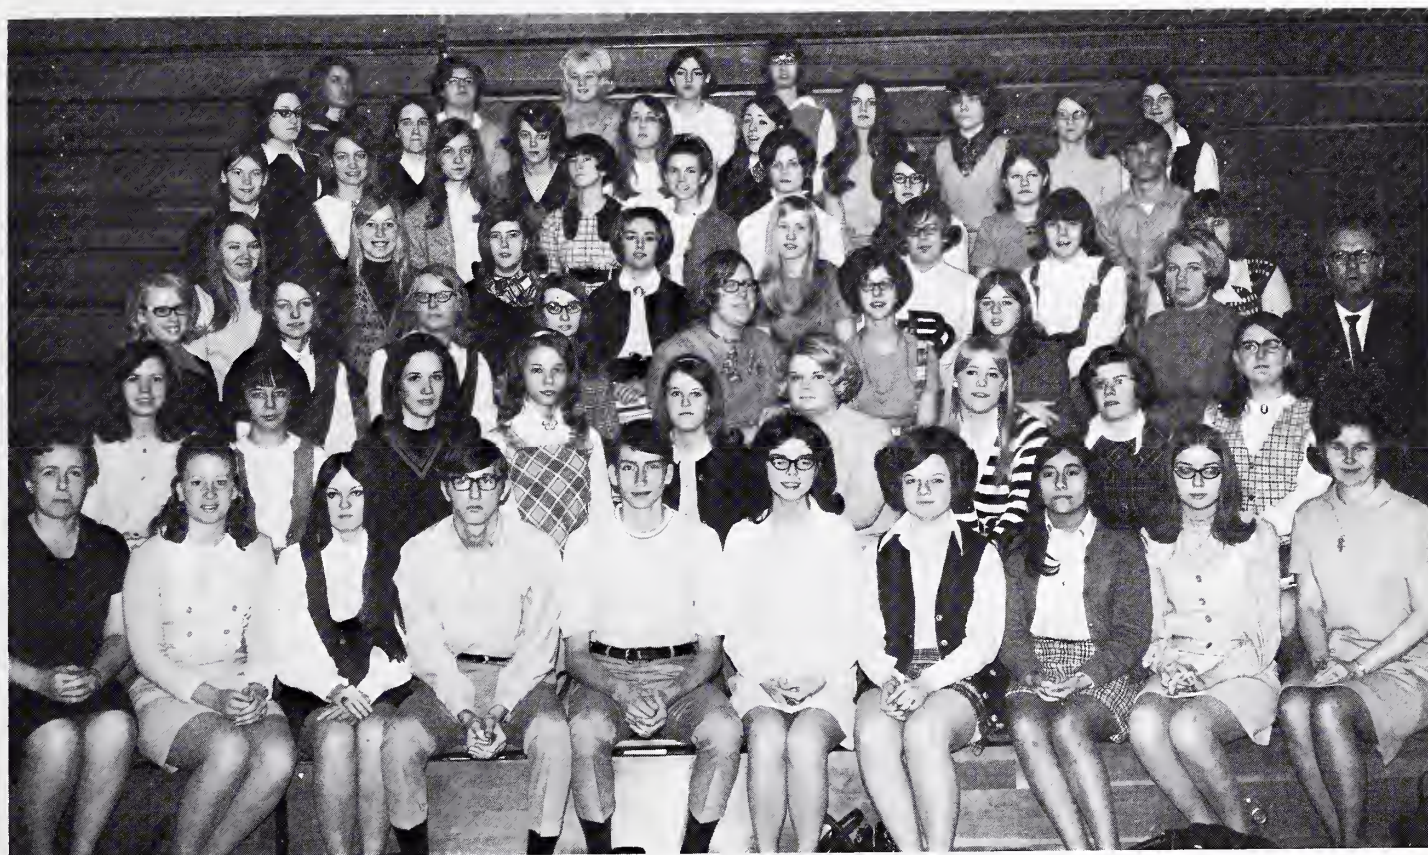

DECA, meaning Distributive Education Clubs of America, was new to Ben Davis this year. Below a committee prepares for their Mardi Gras booth, Reno's Casino, which proved to be the biggest money-maker at the carnival. in DECA, FBLA, FTA Activities

Over 125 members made Future Teachers one of Ben Davis' largest organizations. Throughout the year, the members explored teaching as a career.

FBLA, meaning Future Business Leaders of America, was sponsored by Mrs. Jane Atwood and assisted by Mrs. Robbie Jenkins, and Mr. Loren Jackson. There were over 80 members, the officers being Janie Gettinger, president; Janie Brackin, vice-president; Jim Haley, treasurer; Becky

Brown and Betsy Simon, secretaries; Becky Howard, reporter, and Carol Wortman, historian. The club had many projects and took many field trips.

Service Clubs Explore New Interests

Sunshine Society, sponsored by Mrs. Barbara Hill and Mrs. Paula Karcavich, completed many worthwhile projects this year. Among their activities were preparing baskets for needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas and giving teachers favors for special occasions. Their spring activities were Daddy's Date Night, a Hawaiian Luau, and a style show.

Posing for a picture at a get-acquainted party on August 24 at Debby Myers' home are Yas Matsumoto, Nina Byrenius, Mr. Wood, Tore Prestgaur, and Sara Rodriguez.

Planning a Sunshine Activity are Karen English, treasurer; Ellen Jones; Marti McDaniel, president; Kathe Turner; and Karen Benjamin.

Future Homemakers, Red Cross, Health Careers

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS is one of Ben Davis' most active groups. They are (FRONT ROW) Miss Judy Hardin, sponsor, Diana Reid, Margaret Higgins, Cindy Day, Peggy Thompson, Cindy Harper, Marilyn Welker, Patsy Figg, Patty Wetzel, Miss Kay Clark, sponsor. Injuries plagued the Ben Davis varsity football team this year, making it a tough season for both coach and players. Three of the seven defeats were lost in the last two minutes of play, yet the Giants managed to win the "big one." It was a spectacular victory over powerful Washington at the Homecoming game.

Dave Licht was an outstanding All-County defensive linebacker, while Mark Coss, Jim Mead, and Willard Turpin were the stars of the offensive team. Football at Ben Davis is beginning to take an upward turn as the new feeder system from the grade and junior highs begins to function.

Coach Jarosinski looks on anxiously as Ben Davis places third in the County Meet. (Left) Ben Tinnon, who placed ninth in the regionals, finishes a two-mile warm-up.

In his first year as BD cross country coach, Mr. John Jarosinski inspired the team to an outstanding season. Ben Tinnon and Barry Howard were the outstanding runners, Tinnon placing well in the Regionals with 10:05. Tinnon's best time for the two-mile was a scorching 9:58. The team record of five and three shows both effort and skill by team and coach.

Gymnasts Combine Skill and Precision

This year the gymnastics team, lacking experience, posted a disappointing record of three wins, eight losses. After a difficult schedule of eleven meets, and four invitationals, the Giants gained valuable experience. Outstanding on the rings were seniors Mike Payne and Kurt Blank, and on the trampoline, Wayne Russell. This year's experience should be valuable next season.

Basketball Draws Many Fans

The BD varsity basketball squad had a fine season, perhaps the best spectator season in 15 years. They came from behind in the last two minutes to win five of their games. Spirit was high as BD entered the sectionals, only to be beaten by Northwest, a team they had defeated earlier. According to the Indianapolis Star, "Ben Davis has the best 1-2 punch in country history with Vern Evans and Mike Taylor averaging 20-25 points per game respectively."

The Ben Davis swimmers did a fine job against strong opponents this season. The melody relay team won the County Tourney and placed fourth in the State Tourney. Outstanding men on the team were Darryl Cooper, Neal Colson, and Troy Colson. Cooper took second in the back-stroke event in state competition. In their second year, BD swimmers worked hard and dreamed of the day they could have a swimming pool at school. As it was, they practiced each morning from 5:30 until 6:45 and again each afternoon from 3:30 until 4:30 at the nearby YMCA. Coach William Depres expressed satisfaction with his boys and their desire to excel.

Rocketmen Capture Victories

The tennis team this year did a fine job, finishing the season with eight wins to six losses. Several of the meets were very close, and could have gone either way. The best thing about this year's team, according to Coach Roger Bush, is that all of the players are underclassmen, and with a little practice, they are going to be a really tough team next season.

Under the coaching of Mr. Alan Severn the linksters enjoyed many pleasant hours of competition and relaxation under the warm spring sun. With many returning lettermen next year, Coach Severn hopes to continue his winning streak.

BASKETBALL—(Front to back) Vern Evans, Ken Davis, Mike Taylor

In all seasons a few players stand out from the rest. At Ben Davis coaches had difficulty naming only a few of their athletes as outstanding, and most of them emphasized that their boys were members of a team. Nevertheless, they were able to select the stars. Not pictured are baseball stars Jeff Wilson, Terry Miller, and Jim Black and golfers Jay Ludlow and Fred Poland.

Juniors Had Active Year

*Midway in our high school careers, we looked down on sophomores, up to seniors. We had a fall picnic, a Christmas party,
and most important
of all—the prom.*

The yearbook staff entertained Mr. McKinley's American lit class for selling 100 per cent. (Right) Juniors dance at a class party.
